We nod the head in greeting To many that go by,-But welcome through the gateway Our few yld friends and true; Then hearts leap up, and a raightway

Keep open house for you, Old Friends There's open house for you The surface will be sparkling,

Let but a sunbeam shine; Yet in the deep lies darkling The true life of the wine! The froth is for the many, The wine is for the few; Unseen, untouched of many,

We keep the best for you, Old Friends, The very best for you. The Many cannot know us; They only pace the strand,

Where at our worst we show us-The waters thick with sand! But out beyond the leaping

Dim surge 'tis clear and blue; And there, Old Friends, we are keeping A sacred culm for you, Old Friends, A waiting calm for you.

The Dezcon's Mistake. llow Beautiful for a Child's Grave! DAGUARREOTYPE PICTURES ATTACHED TO Head Stones and Monuments in a Parian Manue tase, and warrented to secure the Likeness from any sir and dampness for a long number of years. Any beguerrestypist can copy the Daguerrestype into these Cases from the original picture, and it is but a few moments work to attach one of them to a Head Stone. When attached to a Head Stone or Mouument, they look as though they were carved on with the Sculptor's Chisel, for they imitate marble so penfertly. They are very ornamental to a Head Stone, and are worth twice the amount charged, for an ornament.—More than Fifteen Thomand Cours they have said More than Fifteen Thousand Cases have been seld, this fact alone shows conclusively that they are fast rubning into general use.

The adorning of the Sepulchers of removed ones alleviates our greef, and soothes the wounded heart. It also cheers the bereaved to know that an additional emballs have the first removed to know that the additional emballs have the first removed. embellishment of the grave presents stronger attractions to arrest the attention of the stranger, and causes tions to arrest measurement or measurement, and gaze on the thir to pause and learn the stame, and gaze on the thirmes of one who has shared so largely in the love of others. To a refined and contivated mind, there is not a more mournful spectacle on earth than a desccrated grave, or neglected and over-grown graveyard, These in whose memories the departed live, will come to strew excet flowers upon their graves, and drop a toar of affection.

The, will plant there the Rose, the Lily and the They will plant there the Rose, the Lily and the Evergreen as Emblems of a fragrant and beautiful Immortality, which they assign them in the Paradise of God. Above all we would deplore the loss of those likenesses of dear departed ones which are so distinctly engraven upon the tablets of our memory. Although months and years may elapse since inexemble leath made us surrender the bedies of cherished ones to the grave, and their spirits to God, yet are they still present to our minds, beautiful and life-like.

Imprisonment for Violation of Injunctions in Selling Sewing Machines. M. JOSEPH THORN has been arrested by the Munited States Marshal, and lodged in Ediridge street fall, for violating an injunction by selling sewing machines. On motion of George Gifford, Esq., an attachment was granted by Judge Smelly, in the United States Court, against the defendant, for selling sewing machines, in violation of an injunction issued against him, on the patents owned by the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company, and the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company, and known as the sewing machine feed patent. Violating the order of Courts is rather a serious matters, as it renders the offender liable to punishment by fire and imprisonment. New York Times.

HAVING experimented with medicine in the treatment of disease a for years, laving saids all prefusions, has examined in the meantime all the various In ment of disease a for years, laying aside all prejudences, has examined in the meantime all the various systems and scheeks of medicine, and have selected such refrectives as I can demonstrate to be sate and efficient rejecting all mineral polsons. To remove mute disease is comparatively an ency task: It is the curing of chronic diseases that requires knowledge combined with patience and perseverance tempered with kindness. It is in the latter class of diseases where physicians mostly make their failures. Having given this class of diseases may specual attention. I profess to be presented to treat all chronic diseases with positive success. I mean all that are curable cases, unless it be conditionally, so that patients may depend upon my declaration. I profess to treat successfully all chronic diseases of the langs. Liver, from the Nursigia Paralysis. Rheumstiem and all derangements of the nervous system. Fistula and Files successfully treated in from thirty to sixty days, without the use of the knife; or nuch additional pain. I profess to treat with unparalleted success the lothsonic disease known by the name of Cancer, in all its stages, without the use of the knife; and control of the part of the stages in those the use of the knife; and the profess to treat with unparalleted success the lothsonic disease known by the name of Cancer, in all its stages, without the use of the knife; name of Cancer, in all its stages, without the use of the knife or any harsh itratment. If patients will strictly obey my instructions, I will guarantee satisfaction in all cases where no disorganization of the vital organ has taken piace. The best of references can begiven from citizens of St. Louis, where i devoted my practice for the last three years. I have now in my office Cancers, Tumors, weighing from 14 to 2 lbs. that I have removed with success, without the use of the knife.
